

Tâioânjī pán
=bô liânjīhû (hyphen) ê Pêhōejī

Tńgkhí Engkok liáuāu, i kah i ê tōahàn hāuse<sup>n</sup> Uiliâm tōa tī Kehlasūkoh (Glasgow). Iûgoán kèsiok tī kàuhōe hòkbū. Kàu itkiú khòngjī nī jī goèh jī it (1902.2.21) kòeóng.

After returning to the Scotland, Eliza lived with her elder son William in Glasgow, and continued teaching and serving in the church until she died on 21 February 1902.